Corona Virus

Your Neighbors

If you feel like you have symptoms, please contact your doctor. If you test positive, please contact the office immediately since we must notify tenants that there is concern. The office will never use your name.

Health officials said people who have mild symptoms like a cough or fever should self-quarantine rather than go to the doctor because the current influx of patients who are in more critical conditions.

But if a person has long-lasting and severe symptoms and they test positive for COVID-19, the disease the coronavirus causes, there are steps they should take to prevent it from spreading to others, like calling their doctor for advice before showing up at the office or hospital, to ensure their own health.

Work Orders

In an effort to lessen the spread of germs, please be advised that all work orders will be handled at the maintenance staff's discretion. Non-emergency work orders may have to wait. Emergencies as always, will be taken care of.

Emergency work orders after 3:30 can be called in to 914-227-0224.
